- Astoria's Dynamic Aggressive ETF Portfolio seeks to achieve attractive risk-adjusted returns over varying macro-economic cycles.
- When constructing portfolios, Astoria utilizes a quantitative and cross asset investment framework. Our portfolios are stress tested through various quantitative models in order to understand the portfolio's risk characteristics.
- Astoria utilizes a core and satellite portfolio construction approach. Core ETF holdings represent the global stock and U.S. bond portfolio and are expected to remain constant. Satellite holdings represent our investment tilts and are expected to fluctuate depending on Astoria's research.
- Our investment management process is a constant feedback loop between research, portfolio construction, and risk management.
- Astoria's Aggressive ETF Portfolio will maintain 70%-80% in equities and approximately 20% in fixed income and alternatives. These bands may fluctuate depending on Astoria's macro-economic & quantitative research.
- Our investment time horizon is generally 1-2 years. Typically, we hold 10-15 ETFs. Our Benchmark is 80% MSCI All Country World Index and 20% Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate Bond Index. There is generally one or two strategic rebalances per year assuming normal market conditions.
- The Aggressive ETF Portfolio is typically utilized by investors with a very high risk tolerance that are solving for long term growth.
